

RAW MATERIAL SOURCING POLICY

1. We commit to respect human rights, avoid contributing to the finance of conflict and comply with all relevant United Nations sanctions, resolutions and laws.
2. We commit to :
 - a. respect human rights according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and International Labour Organization Fundamental Rights at Work;
 - b. do not engage in or tolerating bribery, corruption, money laundering or financing of terrorism;
 - c. support transparency of government payments and rights-compatible security forces in the extractives industry;
 - d. do not provide direct or indirect support to illegal armed groups and
 - e. enable stakeholders to voice concerns about our supply chains.

In addition, we are implementing the OECD 5-Step framework as a management process for risk based due diligence for responsible supply chains of minerals from conflict-affected and high-risk areas.

3. We also commit to using our influence to prevent abuses by others.
4. Regarding serious abuses associated with the extraction, transport or trade of gold, diamonds and coloured gemstones :

We will neither tolerate nor profit from, contribute to, assist or facilitate the commission of:

- a. torture, cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment;
 - b. forced or compulsory labour;
 - c. the worst forms of child labour;
 - d. human rights violations and abuses or
 - e. war crimes, violations of international humanitarian law, crimes against humanity or genocide.
5. We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are committing abuses described in 4 or are sourcing from, or linked to, any party committing these abuses.
 6. Regarding direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups:

We only sell or purchase diamonds that are fully compliant with the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme and, as such, will not tolerate direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups, including, but not limited to, procuring diamonds from, making payments to, or otherwise helping or equipping non-state armed groups or their affiliates who illegally:

- a. control mine sites, transportation routes, points where diamonds are traded and upstream actors in the supply chain or
 - b. tax or extort money or diamonds at mine sites, along transportation routes or at points where diamonds are traded, or from intermediaries, export companies or international traders.
7. We will immediately stop engaging with upstream suppliers if we find a reasonable risk that they are sourcing from, or are linked to, any party providing direct or indirect support to non-state armed groups as described in paragraph 6.
8. Regarding public or private security forces:

We affirm that the role of public or private security forces is to provide security to workers, facilities, equipment and property in accordance with the rule of law, including law that guarantees human rights. We will not provide direct or indirect support to public or private security forces that commit abuses described in paragraph 4 or that act illegally as described in paragraph 6.

9. Regarding bribery and fraudulent misrepresentation of the origin of gold, diamonds and coloured gemstones:

We will not offer, promise, give or demand bribes, and will resist the solicitation of bribes, to conceal or disguise the origin of gold, diamonds and coloured gemstones, or to misrepresent taxes, fees and royalties paid to governments for the purposes of extraction, trade, handling, transport and export of gold, diamonds and coloured gemstones.

10. Regarding money laundering:

We will support and contribute to efforts to eliminate money laundering where we identify a reasonable risk resulting from, or connected to, the extraction, trade, handling, transport or export of gold, diamonds and coloured gemstones.

11. Grievances and complaints

We encourage our partners and whistleblowers to report any concerns about companies, organizations, individuals or activities in our supply chain. Any grievance that raise a concern about a breach of our raw materials sourcing policy should be sent to griefsupplychain@baume-et-mercier.com
